

John Frullo

Biography

State Representative John Frullo took the oath of office and began serving the 84th House District on November 22, 2010.

Representative Frullo is the owner, Vice-President and Chief Financial Officer of Midtown Printing and Graphics, Inc., a privately held, full-service commercial printing, design and bindery company. As a testament to his keen business sense and innovative thinking, Representative Frullo has been able to turn the small, five-person company into a national award-winning operation servicing clients nationwide.

A long-time proponent for the protection of liberty and freedom, Representative Frullo holds strongly the principles of a limited and small government and believes in restoring integrity to the legislative system. He has been active in the Republican Party since the early 1990s. He has served as an officer for the Lubbock County Young Republicans, and treasurer and executive committee member of the Lubbock County Republican Party.

Along with being a strong leader in business, Representative Frullo is an active member of the Lubbock community. He serves as a leader in Boy Scout Troop 157, is a board member and treasurer of Communities in Schools, and is a member and past board member of the Greater Southwest Lubbock Rotary Club.

Additionally, Representative Frullo serves on the Board of Directors of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, is a former chairman and current secretary and treasurer of the MidAmerican Region of the Printing and Imaging Association, and is a member of the National Rifle Association.

Representative Frullo and his wife, Patti, a Lubbock native, have been married 18 years. They have two sons, John Michael and Braden. Representative Frullo graduated from the University of Wyoming in 1984 with a degree in Accounting. He spent several years working as a CPA auditing governmental entities and businesses before purchasing a printing business in 1993.

last updated on 12/10/2011